Overview and product type. The Dell Latitude is a laptop family from Dell Computers, intended for business use. By contrast, the Dell Inspiron is aimed at the consumer market and its specifications change regularly. Whereas Inspiron may change vendors or components several times over the course of a single model, the Latitude line generally retains identical components throughout its production.

Just a question, I have an old Dell Latitude c640 which was mistreated by a teenager years ago who thought that download was a law. I've cleaned it out but it's still slow so I bought a used motherboard and hard drive for it and would like to attempt the motherboard replacement, but it doesn't look quite as easy as the compaq cq62 I had success with before thanks to your tutorial here.
