It will cost me an additional $1000+ to have an Arizona engineer review and approve the plans. I do not think we should have to do this, considering it was never mentioned to us. Coventry's own staff member indicated by phone to me that more and more counties are starting to require this for interstate log home company kits.

At this time, we cannot recommend Coventry Homes to anyone for building their new house. We sincerely hope that our sales rep and Coventry Homes will redeem themselves, firstly, through better communication and, secondly, through a quality-built home. If this is the case, we look forward to posting a very positive review of Coventry Homes.
